

MEMORANDUM FOR:

DS-6 C
D/CRS

Harry,

Mr. Proctor would like you to take a stab at responding to the attached request from General Faurer for permission to release certain material [redacted] 14 May

Please do something in draft that Mr. Proctor can play with. Could I have something by 12 May?

I have sent copies of Faurer's request to OCI, OSR, COMIREX, Ops. Center, and [redacted]

Thanks,

DS-6 C
may want to say

SUBJECT: Contractor Access to Selected CIA CONTROLLED
DISSEM Publications (U)

1. (S) The Advanced Indications Technology Experiment (AITE) is being conducted in the DIA National Military Intelligence Center (NMIC) as one approach to improving the Indications and Warning (I&W) process through an effective combination of computer technology and statistical techniques. These computerized analytical aids are being developed to support analysts and watch officers at the DIA (NMIC).

2. (S) In developing the data base for the AITE, source data is being extracted from selected NSA publications, DIA publications, and CIA publications. All CONTROLLED DISSEM and WARNING NOTICE articles reported in CIA publications are now excised by DIA monitors before releasing to contractors. Denial of CONTROLLED DISSEM and WARNING NOTICE information to contractors for this program imposes severe constraints on the Advanced Indications Technology data base development.

25X1 3. (S) DIA requests authorization for administrative release to ☐ contractors those publications originated by CIA which bear dissemination caveats CONTROLLED DISSEM and WARNING NOTICE, primarily in the STAFF NOTES, NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE BULLETIN, and the WEEKLY REVIEW. Release authority will be required until, at least, 30 June 1976, the present contract expiration date. Should it become necessary to continue work on this project beyond 30 June 1976, another request for release authority will be made to cover the new contract period. Access will be restricted to only those ☐ contractors with an absolute need and with
